

Walk to the start of the Lough Inshagh Trail & St. Colmcille's Birthplace

(Orange) 3.5km moderate walk

In case of emergency call 999

www.hiddendonegal.com

- 3.5km
- Moderate
- Footpath, Minor Roads

Walk to the start of the Lough Inshagh Trail & St. Colmcille's Birthplace

(Orange) 3.5km moderate walk

|                                 |  |
|---------------------------------|--|
| Trailhead:               | Car Park, Church Hill                    |
| Services:                | Church Hill village                      |
| Distance / Time:         | 3.5km / 45min – 1 hour (one way)         |
| Terrain:                 | Footpath, Minor Roads                    |
| Format / Theme of Trail: | Linear/ Heritage                         |
| Ascent / Descent:        | 146m / 195m                              |
| Difficulty:              | Moderate; Medium Fitness required        |
| Minimum Gear:            | Outdoor Footwear, Raingear, Mobile Phone |
| Map:                     | OSI Discovery Series Sheet 6             |
| Grid Reference:          | C 06981 15664                            |
| Way Marker:              | →  |

This is a linear walk leading from Church Hill village to the beginning of the Lough Inshagh Trail in Gartan. Passing Gartan Lough, the river Lennon and Lough na Cailli the scenery is truly breath taking. The route passes Glebe House and Gallery and ends at St. Colmcille's Birthplace. From here, join the Lough Inshagh Trail (8km) which winds through the beautiful mountains of Glenveagh National Park to Glenveagh Castle.

- Please enjoy our trails responsibly and safely
- Sensible clothing and footwear, drinks and a mobile phone are always advised
- Take precautions alongside passing traffic
- Dogs are permitted
- Remember to practice the leave no trace principle - simply leave our countryside for others tomorrow exactly the way you found and enjoyed it today

OSI Permit Number 9112